News: Your C4Yourself account is changing starting September 2021

In September 2021, C4Yourself becomes BenefitsCal. See the new features and how to get ready

Hello,

Last month, we announced the new BenefitsCal.com. This will be a new way to apply for, view, and renew benefits for health coverage, food, and cash assistance.

BenefitsCal.com will also replace the C4Yourself Mobile App. But don't worry. The BenefitsCal site will work great on your smart phone.

BenefitsCal will make it easier than ever to:

- Apply online
- Upload documents
- Report changes
- Renew your benefits
- Contact your caseworker

Update on our progress

We've been busy testing the new features with Californians just like you. We want to make sure the move is as smooth as possible.
